ESM 17:77

PATCHES

A Fox-Trot Song

HUMANITIES REF
Early Sheet Music Collection

Lyric by J. WILL CALLAHAN  Music by LEE S. ROBERTS

Price, 60 cents

New York · G. SCHIRMER · Boston

This number may be had for Player Piano and Talking Machine

Patches

Lyric by
J. Will Callahan

Music by Lee S. Roberts

Copyright, 1919, by G. Schirmer

be - cause it seemed The wild ways that now are o'er; I yearn to of child days Came to me then, And re - turn to Those scenes a - gain, I'd I was just a boy a - gain.
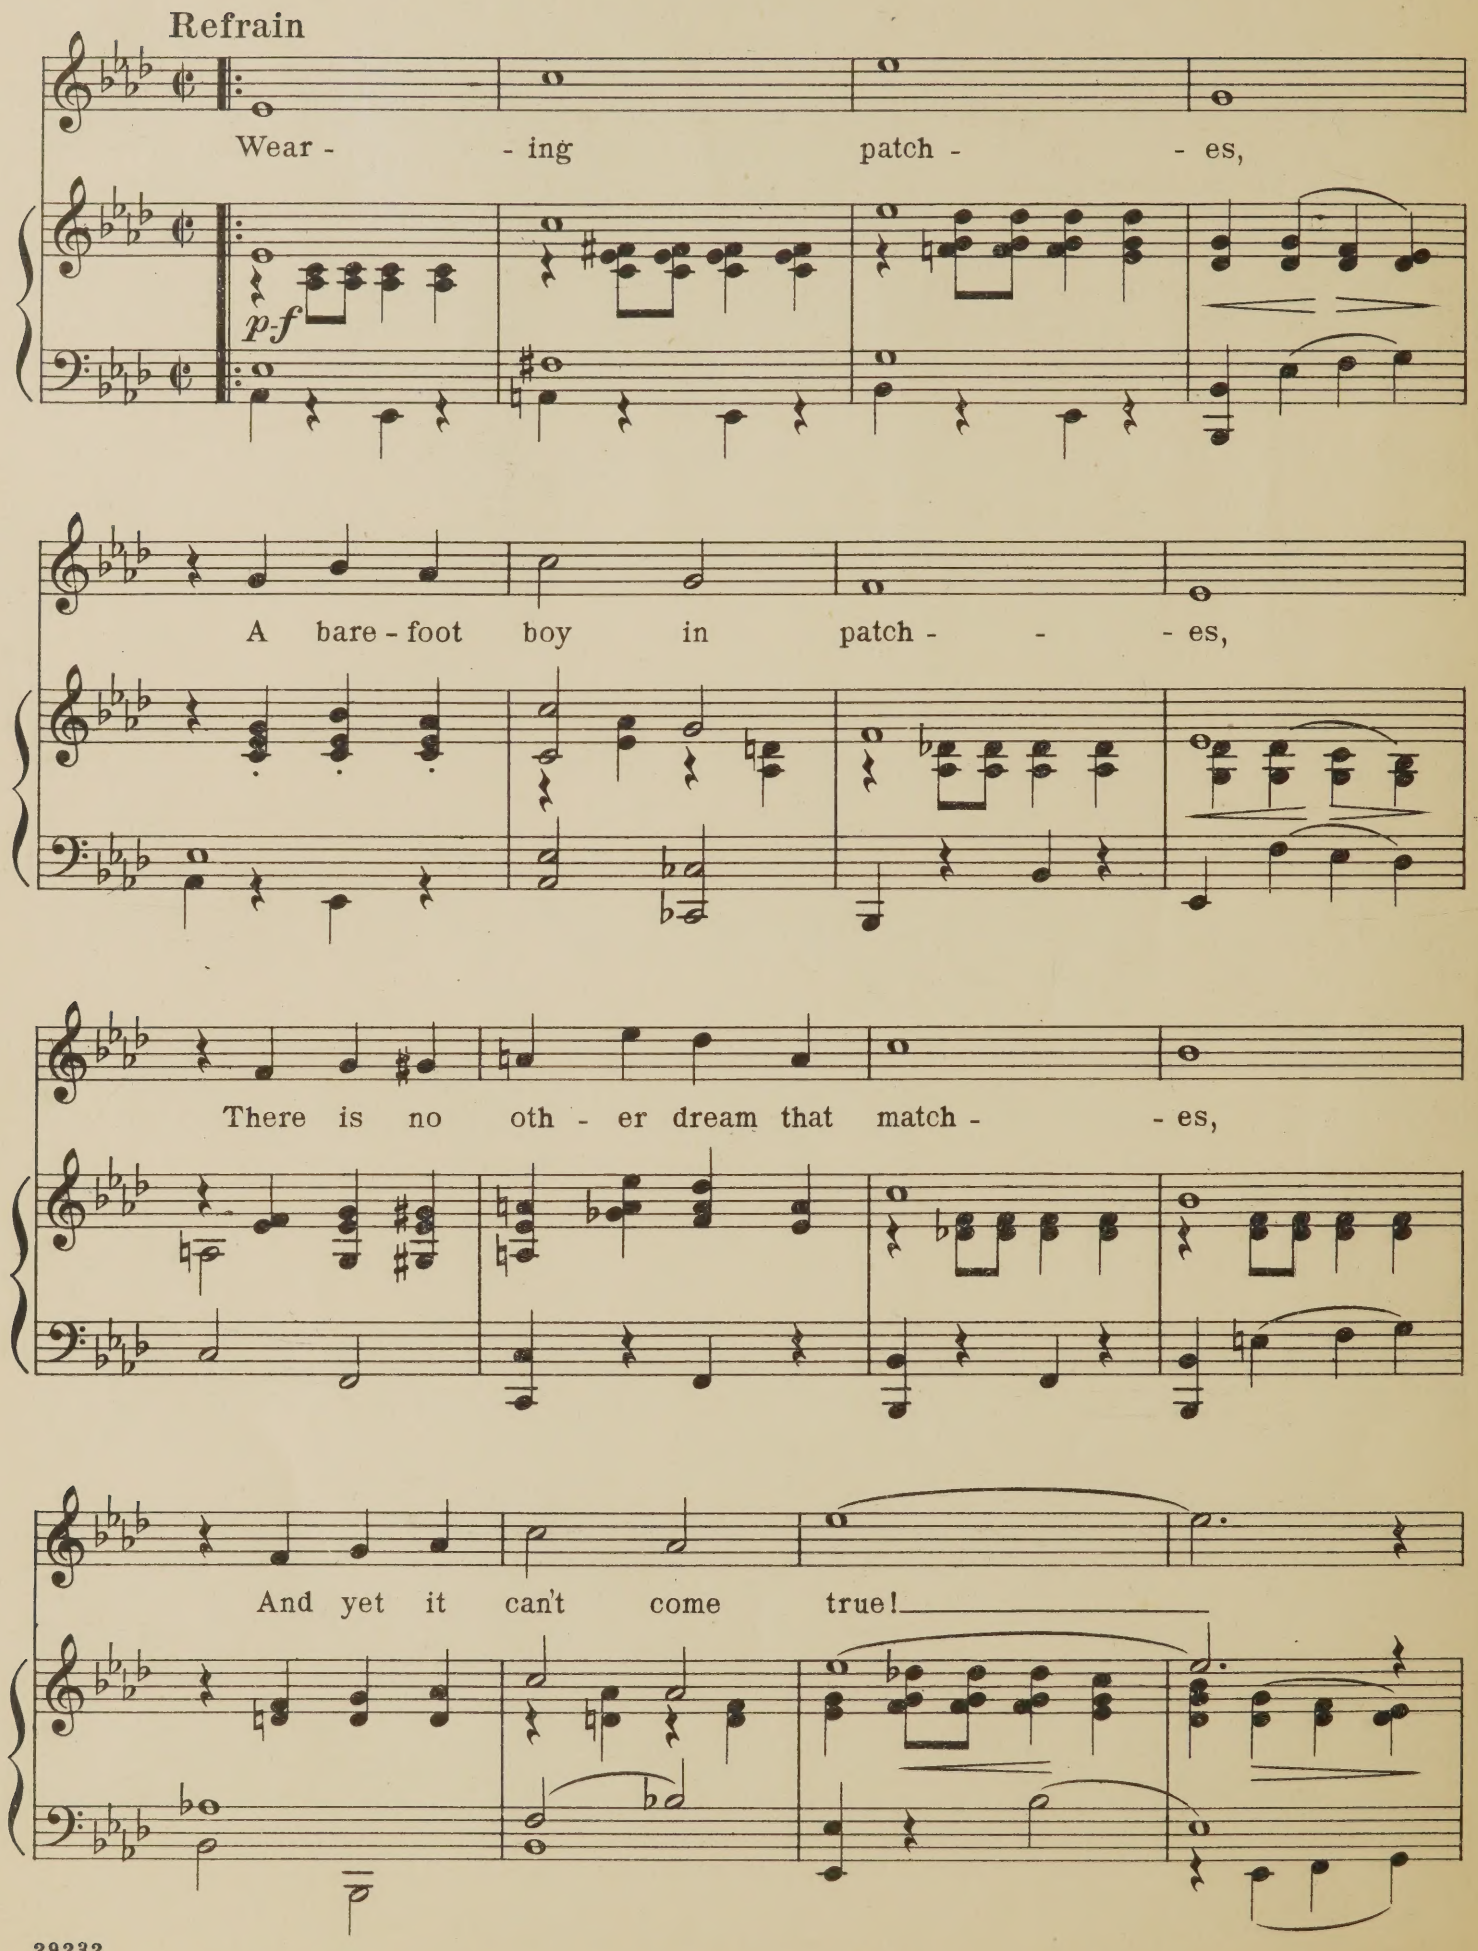
glad - ly trade the now for then.



Refrain
Wear - - ing patch - - es, p-f
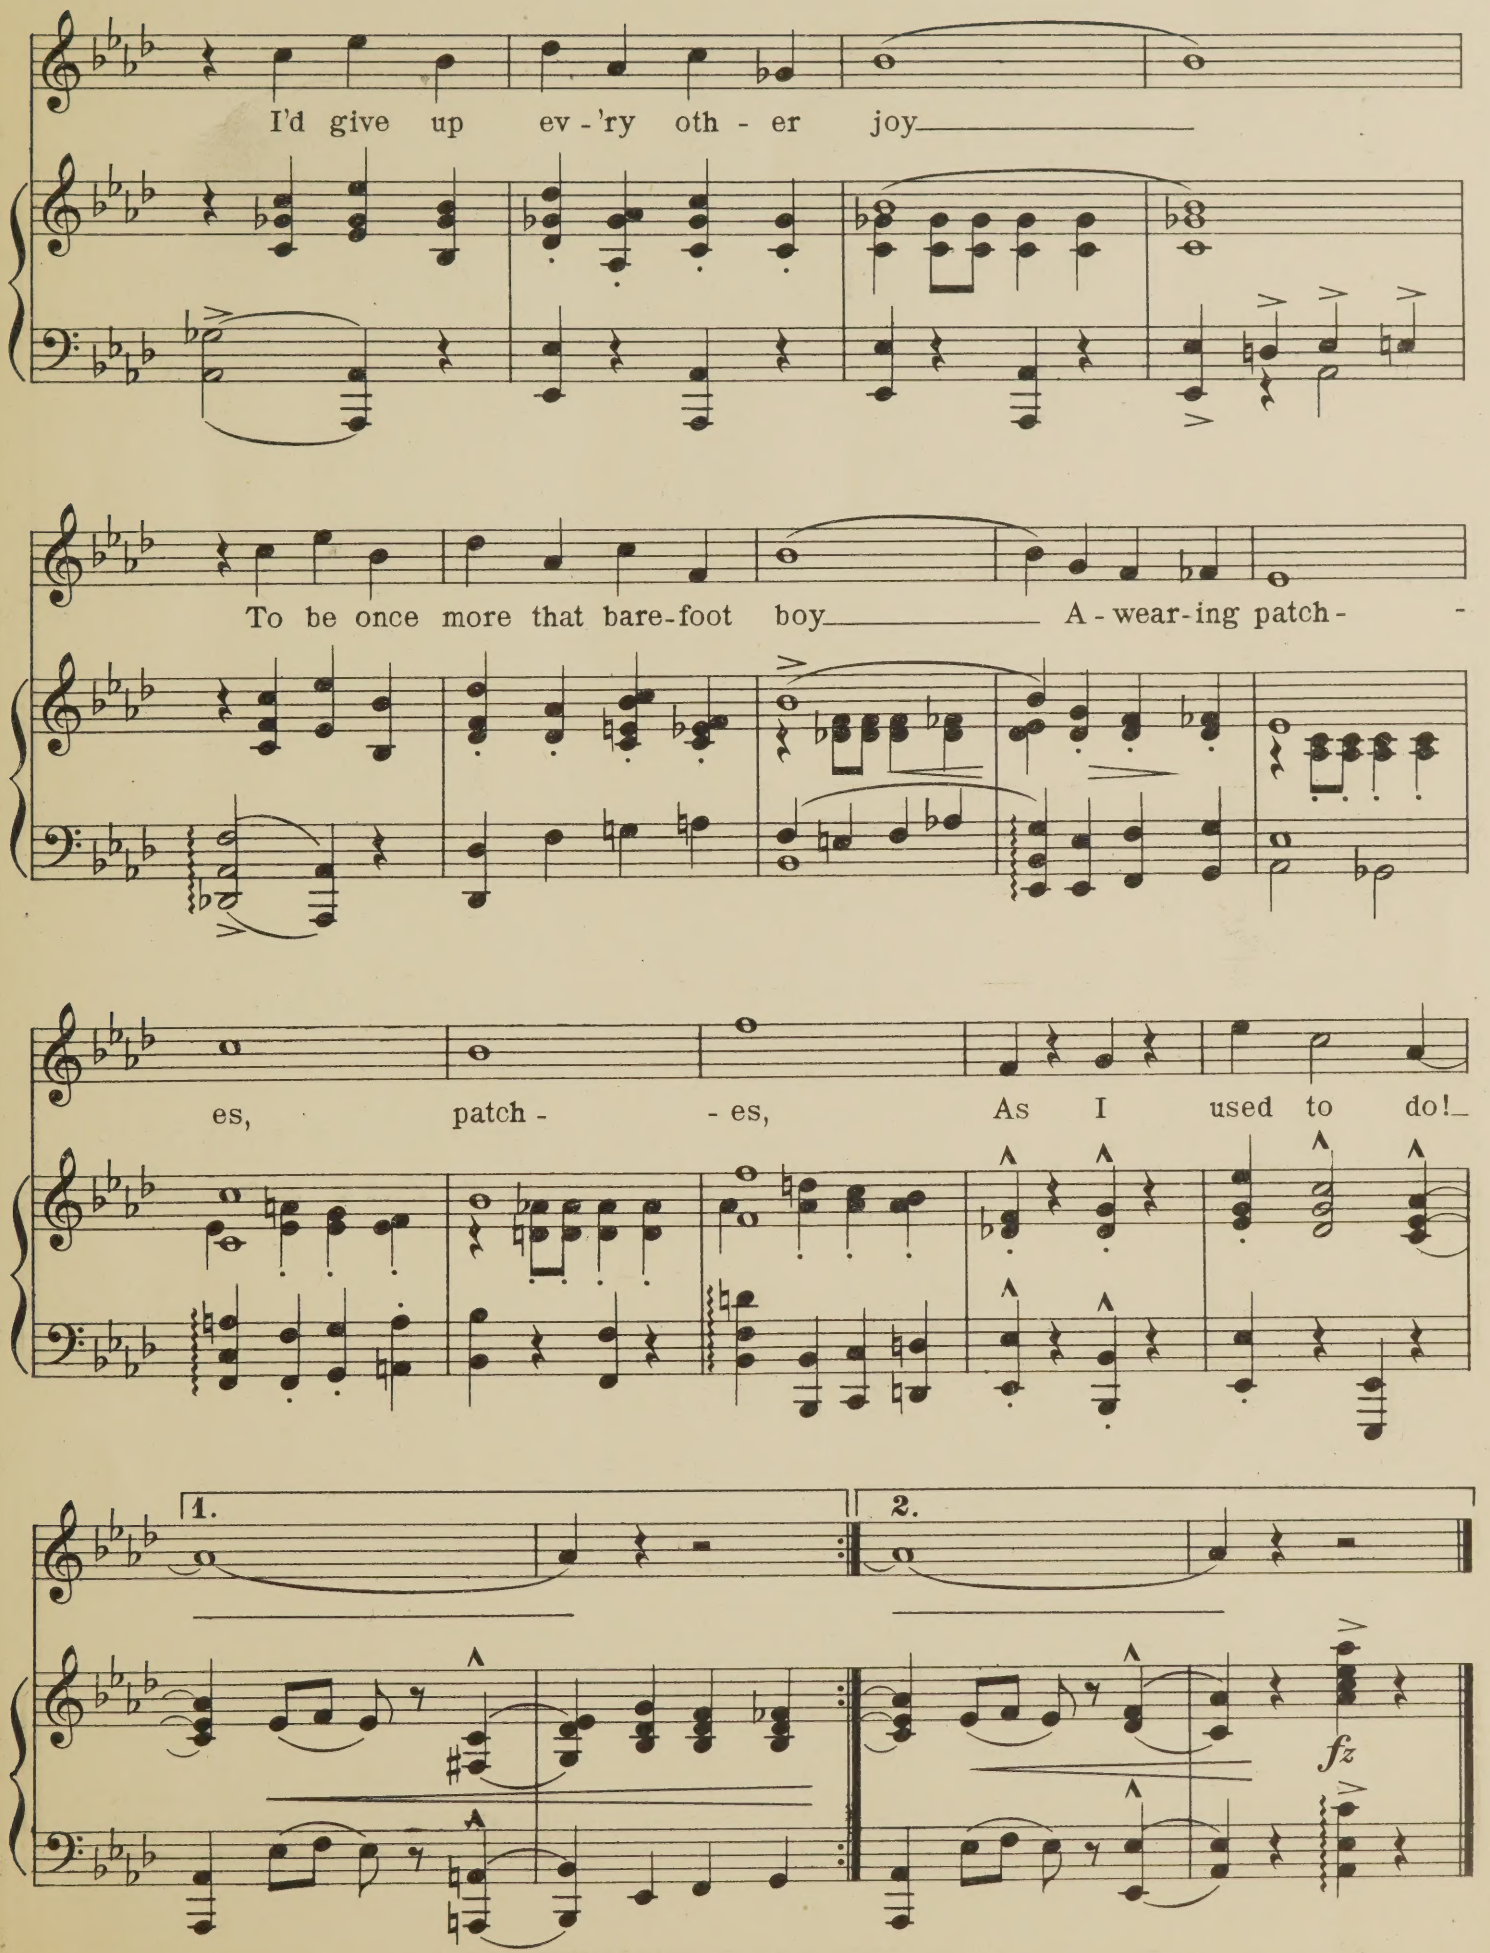
A bare - foot boy in patch - - - es,
There is no oth - er dream that match - - es,
And yet it can't come true!



I'd give up ev - 'ry oth - er joy
To be once more that bare-foot boy A - wear-ing patch - - es, patch - - es, As I used to do!
1.
2.
fz

PLEASE

By Lee S. Roberts and J. Will Callahan

writers of—

Smiles

Patches

Nailo

Montezuma

Refrain
Please let me know that your smile is for me, dear, And won't you mf-f please let me hope that your heart is, too? And won't you tell me, rall.
a tempo
please, if the light in your eyes that I see, dear, Some - times
a tempo shines just for me with a love so true? Then please let me rall.

Copyright, 1919, by G. Schirmer

A ballad fox-trot with a rare melody

Price, 60 cents

G. SCHIRMER · NEW YORK

A-543